Words of Welcome

Rev. Beth Freese Dammers

*Opening Words

One: In those days, in the beginning, Joseph and Mary traveled to Bethlehem.
He was to be registered, and she was expecting a child.
The time came for Mary to give birth, so she delivered her child,
wrapped him in bands of cloth and laid him in a manger.

All: And the angels sang,
"Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth, peace to all whom God favors."

One: Let us worship God, Emmanuel, God with us.

All: Let us sing songs of praise!

*Carol 133 v. 1, 3

Call to Confession

Michael Fenstermacher

One: Christmas Eve is one of the most joyful and hopeful days of the year.
The candles are lit! The children are antsy with anticipation. The music is joyful.
It is a good day!

But even here, on this good day, we know that we are works in progress. Even here, on this good day, we know that we could love more deeply. So join me in the prayer of confession, not because we have to, but because naming that truth out loud allows us to receive God's grace. And God's grace only makes a good day better. So let us pray:

Prayer of Confession

All: Loving Christ, when the shepherds heard that you were born, they dropped their things and ran toward you. They trusted the angels' invitation. They believed that your love existed for them. We wish that we were more like that.

Instead, somewhere between the angels' song and the manger, we tend to lose our way.

We doubt ourselves.

We doubt the invitation.

We doubt that love could know our names.

Remind us that your love is personal and specific. Remind us that the good news of this day is for us. With hope we sing, we pray, and we run. Amen.

Assurance of God's Grace

One: Family of faith, the angels are singing: unto you a child is born.
It is a love that is personal. It is a love that knows your name.
So hear and believe the good news of the Gospel:
You are seen. You are claimed. You are forgiven. You are loved.

All: Glory to God in the highest heaven!

Glory to God here and now.

Alleluia! Amen.

Glory to God

GLORIA (Taizé)

Sharing the Peace of Christ

One: As a sign of our reconciliation with God and with one another, let us share the peace.
The Peace of Christ be with you!

All: And also with you.

Invitation to the Table

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them to the Lord.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

One: (prayer continues)...Thank you for every ounce of beauty that marks this season; it has made it possible for us to join our voices with the angel chorus, singing...

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord; God of pow-er and might. Heav-en and earth are full of your glo - - ry. Ho - san - na in the high-est! Ho - san - na in the high-est! Ho - san - na in the high - est! Blest is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high-est! Ho - san - na in the high-est! Ho - san - na in the high - est!

One: Even in the face of remarkable joy, O God, we still bring weary and worried hearts to you this day.

(prayer continues)...

...so that no matter where we go, we might trust in the mystery of faith:

Christ has died, Christ is ris-en, Christ will come a - gain. Ho - san - na in the high-est! Ho - san - na in the high-est! Ho - san - na in the high - est!

(prayer continues)

The Lord's Prayer (using "sins")

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Communion of the People

*Ushers will invite you to come forward for the receiving of communion.
All are invited to come to the table using the center aisle and return via the outside aisles.
The center station offers allergen-free wafers and prepackaged communion elements.
The other two stations offer bread and grape juice.*

Prayer After Communion (unison)

God of angel choruses, curious shepherds, and expectant parents, there are a million other places we could be, but today we wanted to be here. Today, we needed to be here—worshiping together on this joy-filled Christmas Eve. For when we gather around this Table, we remember the ways that you always make room for us. Help us to carry that inclusive spirit into the rest of our lives, for we know that love is what turns weariness into joy. With grateful hearts we pray, amen.

JOSIE FALBO JAZZ QUINTET

Sunday, January 12

3:00 pm

We welcome the Josie Falbo Jazz Quintet. Josie has been one of Chicago's busiest and most frequently heard studio singers for over 35 years. Vocally she can deliver the Gospel power of Mahalia Jackson, rock as hard as Pat Benatar, Be-Bop with the best of them, or perform today's contemporary hits with a style and sound that will amaze and impress any audience. The program, “Swinging Ladies of Jazz,” will incorporate songs made famous by the most revered female jazz singers and others. Josie will be joined by Jeremy Kahn (piano), Eric Hochberg (bass), Bob Rummage (drums), and Eric Schneider (saxophone).

They write their songs with inclusion, diversity, love, kindness and family values, and their themes examine the world with curiosity. This interactive musical event is suitable for the whole family, young and young at heart. Click here to learn more about Wendy & DB

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION IN ART

Art Exhibit at CPC

Jan 12 - Feb 2

Embracing Our Differences is a nonprofit organization based in Southwest Florida along Florida's Cultural Coast, that uses the power of art and education to celebrate and promote our individuality and common humanity. They accomplish this through an annual, large-scale, juried exhibition and a comprehensive series of educational initiatives, programs, and resources designed for educators and students. Smaller canvas-sized art pieces are coming to CPC!

Join us to expand our horizons of what makes us human and what brings us together with 25 pieces of art created by children from around the world. Click here to learn about Diversity and Inclusion in Art and preview the exhibit.
